

EXPERT'S PROFILE

Name of Grantee : Dr. Iderlina M. Babiano
Area of Expertise : Transportation Planning
Inclusive Date of Contract : Short-Term Program
as BSP Awardee : P1: 01-30 March 2017 (30 days)
P2: 06 November – 05 December 2017 (30 days)
P3: 01-30 March 2018 (30 days)
Host Institution : UP Diliman — Electrical and Electronics
Engineering Institute (EEEI)
E-mail Address : derlie@gmail.com , imateo@unimelb.edu.au

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

- PhD (Civil Engineering major in Transport Planning), 2008, The University of Tokyo, Japan
- Master of Arts in Urban and Regional Planning, 2001, UP Diliman
- Bachelor of Science in Architecture , 2000, UP Diliman

WORK EXPERIENCES

- 2015 – present                    University of Melbourne, Australia
Senior Lecturer in Urban Planning
- 2010 – 2016                    The University of Queensland, Australia
Senior Lecturer in Planning
- 2000                                Metropolitan Manila Development Authority (MMDA), Philippines
Transport consultant

To be Accomplished as a BSP Awardee:

1. Project planning and development
2. Develop several co-authored manuscripts on:
  - “Exploring the factors that influence women’s participation in public bicycle-sharing programs: A critical review of literature” (conference paper)
  - “Developing a demand-responsive bikeshare for ASEAN” – to be submitted to Journal of Transport Geography Publication
  - “An evaluation framework towards a successful ASEAN bikeshare model” – to be submitted to Journal of Transportation Policy
3. Conduct capacity building workshop/briefing/stakeholder engagement
4. Assist/mentor students and faculty on their research works
5. Preparation of research proposal, with assistance from faculty members, for submission to funding agencies